

The McCubbins

Reaching the lost and Training leadership

DECEMBER – 2014

Dear Supporters,

This was a busy year; I flew 52,000 miles in total. I don't really enjoy traveling, but I definitely enjoy the job God has given me to do when I get there. I just returned from a great week of meetings in Honduras. I had the pleasure of having Jeff Shibata, one of our deacons from here in Los Angeles, accompany me on the trip. A few years ago he traveled with Elaine and me to Asuncion, Paraguay and as a result became a real prayer warrior for that work. I would welcome any of you to accompany me sometime on one of my trips so that you could see the work first hand. Jeff enjoyed his time in Honduras and last Wednesday in Prayer Meeting he shared with our church family how very impressed he was with the humility of the people, their love for the LORD and their obvious hunger for the Word of God.

The first two days we were in Honduras I met with 48 pastors from 8:00 AM to 1:00 PM and taught the entire book of Philippians. The host church provided lunch for all of us, and as we sat and ate it was exciting to hear many of the pastors talking about how the DVD Bible College is impacting their churches. They say it is giving real stability to their works. We can't thank God enough for the way He is using His Word in their lives.

Throughout the week I preached each evening and the services were well attended; in fact, we had 800 the first night. God blessed and souls were saved. I wish you could have heard the children's choir. What a blessing they were.

In closing Elaine and I want to take this opportunity to tell you how much we appreciate you. You are such an important part of our ministry; I know that I would never be able to keep up such a rigorous pace if it weren't for your prayers, so please keep praying! We love you and thank God for you.

We want to wish each of you a wonderful Christmas and a New Year that is filled with God's blessings.

Your servants and His,

Mike and Elaine McCubbins
